The first system of musical notation for piano, consisting of two staves. The right staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, some grouped in triplets, and a repeat sign. The left staff begins with a bass clef and contains a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, also with a repeat sign. The dynamic marking ppp is placed below the right staff.

The second system of musical notation for piano, consisting of two staves. Both staves continue the melodic and harmonic lines from the first system, featuring various rhythmic patterns and triplet markings.

The third system of musical notation for piano, consisting of two staves. The notation continues with intricate rhythmic patterns and triplet markings.

The fourth system of musical notation for piano, consisting of two staves. It includes first and second endings, indicated by '1.' and '2.' above the staves. The dynamic marking pp is present. Above the right staff, the instruction 'Drum with both hands on the head.' is written.

The fifth system of musical notation for piano, consisting of two staves. It also includes first and second endings. The dynamic marking p is present.

The sixth system of musical notation for piano, consisting of two staves. It concludes with a 'D Slide' instruction above the right staff. The dynamic marking mf is present.
